

US Mortgage Application Checklist

Applying for your mortgage is easier when you're prepared.

Before you meet with your Mortgage Broker, make sure you have the following documents ready.

- Basic identification information for each borrower.
- Employment information for the last two years.
- Monthly income and household expenses.
- A list of your assets – what you own – and your liabilities – what you owe.
- Details about the home transaction, such as the purchase price.
- A declaration of any legal issues that may affect your financial situation.
- Your signature, which confirms that the information you provided is true and accurate.
- Optional information for government monitoring purposes.
- Purchase contract signed by all parties.
- Government-issued ID.

Income verification

- Two years' worth of W-2 forms.
- 30 days' worth of pay stubs.
- One to three years' worth of income tax returns.
- Signed and dated IRS Form 4506-C.
- If self-employed: business and personal income tax returns, signed profit and loss statement, and list of all business debts.

Assets and debts

- Two to three months' worth of statements for all accounts listed on the application, such as bank and investment accounts, credit cards, and student loans.
- Documentation for any large deposits on asset or bank statements.
- Judicial decree or court order for each obligation due to legal action.

Credit verification

- Letter of explanation for late payments, collections, judgments, or other derogatory items on your credit reports.
- Bankruptcy and discharge papers.
- Thin credit file: payment history for utility, cellphone, cable TV, car insurance and other bills.
